

Defense GAMETECH Users' Conference

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

GAMETECH is a unique user-focused conference dealing with gaming technologies that enhance warfighter training. Gaming experts will discuss the current state of game technologies. Government, industry and academia will share knowledge, research and technology on virtual worlds and games for training.

We are pleased to announce this is the first year that the conference is having sponsorship opportunities. Each was created to help strengthen your company's brand and increase your exposure to all conference attendees.
